

This summer, invest in your future!

Why not have a great job with some of the best in Rhode Island?

The Rhode Island Department of Transportation will employ a select number of college students to be involved with the State's expanding transportation program.

This program will allow college students a unique opportunity to work alongside transportation professionals in such areas as Highway, Traffic and Bridge Design, Construction, Environmental Protection, Historic Preservation, Landscaping, Computer Information Systems, Materials, Legal Services, Audit, Planning and Public Affairs.

Appointments begin in mid-May and continue to early September. Salary is $9 - $13 hourly depending on your academic standing and experience. Assignments are available in Providence and Statewide.

To apply, please send:

- A letter of interest detailing your education and work experience.
- An official copy of your latest college academic transcript, and
- A statement of your career plans, to:
